

INDEX.

A.

- Alexander on Faith*, noticed, 463.
Alexis de Tocqueville, article reviewing his Life, Letters, and Remains, 442.
American Board and its Reviewers, The, article on, 258; critique of the Christian Examiner, 259; suppressions and omissions, 260; its idea of missions, 261; appreciative critique of the North American Review, 262; state of the world a half century ago, 263; origin of the Board, 264; growth of funds, 266; life and labor contributed, 267; character of the missionaries, 269; literature of the Board, 270; linguistic triumphs, 271; testimony of N. American, 273; theory of its missions, 274; educational experiments, 275; The Church Review's strictures, 278; Armenian and Nestorian policies, 279; developing native forces of mission churches, 281.
 Anonymous Reviewing, 465.
 Apostasy, strange notion of, 650.
Arabella Johnson, poetry, 332.
 Aristocracy, Southern, 89.
 Arnold of Rugby, 141.
 Art, when good, 509.
 Authorship, 668.

B.

- Battle of the Books*, article on, 382; Essays and Reviews, id.; Tracts for Priests and People, 383; Replies to Essays and Reviews, 386; Aids to Faith, 390.
Bayne's Testimony of Christ to Christianity, noticed, 665.
Bengel's Gnomon of the New Testament, noticed, 658.

C.

- Cheever's Waymarks of the Pilgrimage*, noticed, 664.
Christ's Work of Reform, noticed, 464.
 Church-Architecture and Spiritual Worship, 497.
Church Culture and Discipline, article on, 397; what a church is, id.; meaning of discipline, 398; objects, the culture of holiness, 399; Christian activity, id.; offences to be thus prevented, 400; who responsible for church discipline, 401; how offences are to be managed, 404.

- Cities, The Two*, poetry, 614.
City of Saints, Burton's, noticed, 552.
 College dissipation, 147.
Confessions of Augustine, The, noticed, 114.
 Cowardice, Moral, of our age, 511.
Crests from the Ocean-World, noticed, 115.

D.

- Davidson's Introduction to the Old Testament*, noticed, 656.
Day's Revival Sermons, noticed, 212.
Documents of College Society, noticed, 561.

E.

- Ecclesiastes, Stuart's Commentary on*, noticed, 328.
 Education, a superficial, 506.
Ellicott's Lectures on the Life of Christ, noticed, 114.
Elliot, Charlotte, The Hymns of, article on, 156.
English Country, and Country-Folk, article on, 284; position of landholders, 285; respectability and influence of, 286; difficulty of becoming, 287; hereditary nobility, 288; small paymasters, 289; instances of popular resistance, 290; loose morals of the aristocracy, 291; the gentry, 293; the farmers, 295; wealth of, id.; English landscape, 296; division of work, 297; thoroughness, 298; farm-houses, 299; farmers not intelligent nor influential as a class, 301.
English Peasantry, The, article on, 406; Lord Macaulay's mistake, 407; wages of, 408; depressed condition of, 411; "Unions" for the poor, 416; ignorance, superstition, and brutishness of, 417; selling a wife, 419; Richard Cobden, 422.
English Woman at Home, The, article on, 525; rather finely formed than beautiful, 526; dress more tasteful than with us, 528; more appropriate to circumstances, 529; out-door exercise, 530; health of, 532; education of English girls, 533; domestic and social life, 536.
Ephesians, Ellicott's Commentary on, noticed, 464.
 Exegesis of Gal. iv. 21-31.

F.

- Felt's Reply to Judge White*, on N. England Congregationalism, noticed, 219.
French Writers before the Revolution, article on, reviewing Vinet's Lectures, 240; age of Louis XIV., 241; its artificiality, 242; Duke de St. Simon's writings, 243; account of the conversion of the Duke of Burgundy, 244; Rollin, 246; Vauvenargues, 247; Montesquieu, id.; Fontenelle, 250; Voltaire, 251; Rousseau, 255.

G.

- Gail Hamilton's Country Living and Thinking*, noticed, 660.
Gasparin's America before Europe, noticed, 555.
Gasparin's Uprising of a Great People, noticed, 69.
 German Piety, 467.
Great Expectations, Dickens', noticed, 219.
Guthrie's Way to Life, noticed, 565.

H.

- Hagenbach's Text-Book of the History of Christian Doctrines*, H. B. Smith's edition, noticed, 326.
Harper's Handbook for Travellers, noticed, 663.
Hebraisms, 333.
 Hieroglyphics, earliest use of, 636.
 Higher Christian Life, 474.
 Hints to Writers, 335.
Holmes, Oliver Wendell, article on, reviewing his Currents and Counter-Currents in Medical Science, 583. His genius and faults characterized, 585.
Hopkins' History of the Puritans, noticed, 215.
Hugh Miller's Essays, noticed, 666.
 Human race, theory of plurality of its origin, 548, 647.
Hymn, A, 334.

I.

- Indian Tribes, Our*, article on, 517; number overestimated at first, 518; increasing under Christian culture, 519; obstacles to their elevation, 520. The gospel must save them, 523.
Irving, Washington, Works, noticed, 659.
 Isaac Johnson, poetry, 467.

J.

- Jubilee Essays*, noticed, 661.
Justification, The Christian Doctrine of, article on, 229; relation of sinner to law, id.; ability and obligation not commensurate, 230; righteousness, how attained, 232; remission of past sin, 234; penalty removed through Christ, 235; change of heart, 236; justification and sanctification, 237; positive righteousness, 238.

K.

- Knowledge, its measure, 508.
Koran, The, noticed, 664.
Kurtz's Text-Book of Church History, noticed, 325.

L.

- Language, The Science of*, article on, reviewing Max Müller's Lectures, 539; early investigations, 540; unity of languages, 543; dialectic changes, 545; dialects the source of languages, 546; origin of language, natural, 547; unity of human race, 548.
Leisure Hours in Town, noticed, 329.
 Literary Notices, 110, 212, 324, 461, 552, 556.
Little Memorial, Rev. G. B., noticed, 218.
 Logic of Events, The, 116.
London, and its Forms of Social Life, article on, 91; solitude of great cities, 92; home-life in London 94; old families and their habits, 96; poverty and woe, 97; respectability, 98; city and town, 102; local prerogatives and feelings, 104.
London; Public Institutions and Social Dangers, article on, 195; Times Newspaper, 196; charities — Blue-Coat School, 203; perversion of these trusts, 205; Belgravia, 206; crime and ruffianism, 207; Christian philanthropy, 208.

M.

- Maud, Tennyson's, criticized and defended, 25.
May's Constitutional History of England, Vol. I. noticed, 113.
M' Cosh's Supernatural and the Natural, noticed, 329.
Milt's Representative Government, noticed, 558.
Montrose, and other Biographical Sketches, noticed, 113.
 Mormonism, 552.
Motley's Dutch Republic and United Netherlands, reviewed, 356-381.
Mussey's Friends and Foes of Health, noticed, 563.

N.

- National Character*, article on, 425; what it is? on what depends? when it exists? 433; have we a national character, id.; dangers and safeguards, 435; religion must unify us, 436; our advantages, 437; our progress, 440; our duty, 441. Neander as a church historian, 325, 327. Not Death, but Life, poetry, 225.

P.

Papyrus, earliest specimens of writing on, 636.

Park's Life of Emmons, review of, 38; diffuseness, and over-estimate of individual influence, 42; literary strictures, 43; Emmons' personal habits, 45; mental character, 47; theology, 48; points towards dangerous error, id.; his biographer's unfair treatment of Calvinistic views, 49-55.

Pascal's Religious Thoughts and Character, article on, 183; Life and Genius, 184; Thoughts, how made up and published, 186; their value and emendations, 187; analysis and quotations, id.; devotional spirit, 192.

Pentateuch, authorship and date of, 636.

Perfectionism, Modern, 475.

Perseverance in Grace, article on, 569; doctrine stated, 570; on what based, 571; covenant of grace, 572; biblical proofs, 574; objections answered, philosophical, 576; biblical, 580.

Pet Books, 224.

Plymouth Brethren, The, 482.

Poetry, 116, 119, 224, 225, 303, 332, 334, 467, 549, 614.

Prayer, sitting in, 227.

Prophets, strange theory of the authority of, 647.

Psalms, The Book of, in Hebrew and English, noticed, 113.

R.

Recreations of a Country Parson, The, reviewed, 162; books that live are those of personal interest, 163; this writer has a generalizing mind, 165; a genial philosophy, 166; a cheerful humor, 167; magazine writing too intense, 168; too piecemeal, 169; transcendental authors, 170; contrast in the Country Parson, 172; criticism of his essays, 173.

Regeneration not by Resolution, article on, 337; what this change is, id.; in what department of the soul it takes place, 338; analysis of the soul, id.; it has dispositions prior to acts, 339; Edwards, Dwight, Bellamy, cited, id.; conversion distinguished from regeneration, 341, note; regeneration distinguished from its fruits, 343; these confounded by the two Taylors, 344; distinction of a principle from its exercise, 346; Calvin, Charnock, Bellamy, Dwight, Edwards, on the nature of this change, 346, 347; author of this work, 348; why man cannot effect it, 350; it is of God, 352; objections answered, 353.

Religio-Medici, and Sir Thomas Browne noticed, 216.

Religious Self-Complacency, article on, 469; easy way to heaven ever desired, 470; Job's three friends, in error about God's providence, 471; Elijah's experience, 472; "The Higher Christian Life," 474; its notion of reconversion, 475; its perfectionism, 476; mistaken as to the way of sanctification, 477; misrepresents Luther, 478; and Jonathan Edwards, 480; Plymouth Brethren, 482; Müller's Life of Christ, 483; its errors, 484.

Resurrection of the Dead, and from the Dead, article on, 513; of the dead, refers to all men, id.; from the dead, to the righteous only, 514.

Right Culture in the School-Room, article on, 56; its first object intellectual, id.; begin with culture of memory, 57; illustrations from Augustine and Sir W. Hamilton, 58; Dr. Johnson, Rufus Choate, Everett, 59; Macaulay, 60; next, the judgment, 61; mistake in Burns' education, 63; physical and religious culture, 64, 67.

Round Table, The, 116, 222, 330, 465, 566, 667.

Ruskin's Literary Spirit, article on, 491.

S.

Sabbath School Literature, Our, article on, 305; present state of, id.; vicious taste in readers and authors, 306; evils to our youth, 308; Sabbath-school hymns and music, 309; demand for religious fiction ominous, 312; not necessary to instruct and interest, 313; the experiment tried, 314; novels in town libraries, 316; Bible-fiction no defence, 317; Prof. Long on excitement as the end of reading, 319; remedy of these evils, 320; criticism on, 566.

Sacrifice, its true spirit, 495.

Saunders's Reconstruction of Biblical Science, review of, 635; Moses and the Jews had no knowledge of writing, 636; Pentateuch to II. Kings inclusive, written by Ezra, 641; robs Scripture of divine authority, 642; call of Abraham discarded, 643; miracles thrown out, 644; all historical record denied before the time of Samuel, 644; law of Moses discarded, 645; prophets did not write the books bearing their names, 647; creation of the human race by many pairs, id.; the patriarchs, so-called, not persons, 649; theory of the apostasy, 650; New Testament falls with the Old, 652; audacity of this author, 653.

Scotch Humor, 118.

Secret Societies in College, 145, 154.

Shedd's Discourses and Essays, (new edition,) noticed, 563.

Short Sermons, 108, 210, 322, 459, 550, 654.

Signs, theological, 667, 669.

Singer, The, poetry, 224.

Skeltonia: article on the Life and Works of Rev. Philip Skelton, a learned and eccentric Irish clergyman, 589.

Slavery and the War, 88, 618.

Slavery in its interior life, 608.

Southern Insurrection, The; its Elements and Aspects, article on, 615; the uprising of the country, 616; cause of the insurrection, 618; a pro-slavery war, 620; not to be ended by dividing the nation, 622; but by a conquest of rebellion, and the removal, for this, of its cause, 623; African question involved, 624; to be mostly solved on our soil, 625; negroes needed where they are, 626; their domestic and political status will adjust itself, 627; contempt of the negro population an obstacle to the war, 628; a flagrant sin, 629; Prof. Taylor Lewis quoted, id.; the general corruptness of the country another obstacle to the prosecution of the war, 631; prospects, 633.

Spare Hours, noticed, 217.

State of the Country Historically Developed, article on, 69; notice of authors, referred to, 70; recent events, 72; questions to be answered, 73; spirit of the first colonists, South, 74; North, 75; external causes of formation of national character, 76; internal, 77; at the North, democratic tendencies, 78; at the South, aristocratic, 80; why one nation and not two, 81; united by foreign opposition, 83; subsequent growth, 86; present rebellion, 87; its cause, id.; relation to it of slavery, 88; what must be done, 89.

T.

Taylor's Spirit of Hebrew Poetry, noticed, 324.

Taylor's, The Two, article on, 1; John of Norwich, England, and N. W. of New Haven, 2; resemblance of views on the Scriptures, 3; Original Sin, 5; Total Depravity, by nature, 13; The Atonement, 17; Regeneration, 20; Justification, 22; Pres. Edwards, per contra, 25.

Tennyson's Poems, Another of, article on, 25. Maud; effect of War on national life, 29, 31.

Texts, The Use of, 222.

Texts, used and explained: Luke x. 36; John xii. 34, 108-9. Rom. xvi. 1-3; 1 Sam. i. 28, 210-11. Phil. iii. 13, 14, 322-23. Acts xx. 20; Ezek. xxxiii. 11, 459-60. Is. xlii. 18; Prov. xxvii. 22, 550-51. Luke ix. 34; Heb. xii. 14, 654-55.

The Last Appeal, poetry, 119.

Theological Lecture-Rooms, 223.

Times, The London, described and characterized, 196.

Tocqueville, Alexis de, 442.

Tolerance, Christian — Its Law and its Limit, article on, 121; Westminster Review's charge, 121; basis of fellowship, 122; relation to errorists, 123; men should be willing to be called by their true names, 124; some things are settled, 125; not intolerant to refuse infidelity a hearing, 126; pulpits and professorships bound to fulfil their doctrinal pledges, 127; not persecution to enforce it, 128; change of views demands a change of position, id.; errorists make the most ado about bigotry, 132; have no exclusive rights, id.

Tragedy of Errors and Success, reviewed, 606; subject of this drama, 608; faulty in a want of humor, 609; merits of the play, 610; 'Record of an Obscure Man,' 612.

Trench's Seven Churches of Asia, noticed, 560.

Trollope's North America, noticed, 564.

Truth, poetry, 118.

Twenty-Fifth Report of Board of Education, noticed, 465.

Two Pictures, Jewish and Christian, article on, 176; allegory, type, parable, distinguished, 176; Gal. iv. 21-31, typical, 177; parallelism explained, 178; application to the Christian age, 180.

Types and anti-types, 176.

U.

Unconscious Influence, 332.

Unitarianism, American, article on, 485; causes which produced it, 486; early history, 487; present condition, 490.

University Life, English and American, article on, reviewing Tom Brown at Rugby and Oxford, and Bristed's Five Years at Cambridge, 134; Dr. Arnold, 141; English and American student life compared, 143; moral and manly tone higher with us, 146; drinking customs abroad, 147; reasons of our superiority here, 149; influence of common schools upon college character, id.; no caste with us, 150; evils of our system, 153; physical education, danger of, 153; secret societies, injurious, 154.

V.

Virgil and our Physicists, 468.

Voltaire and Rousseau, 251-255.

Volary, The, poetry, 303.

W.

Walker's, Dr. James, Sermons, noticed, 110.

War, The Present, 87, 116, 226, 330, 567, 615.

Westcott's Introduction to Study of Gospels, noticed, 562.

Williams, Dr. Rowland, Defence of, noticed, 556.

Wolf's Baptism, noticed, 461.

Writing, early used by the Jews, Egyptians, and Babylonians, 636.

